2014 Instructions for Form FTB 3500

Exemption Application

References in these instructions are to the Internal Revenue Code (IRC) as of January 1, 2009, and to the California Revenue and Taxation Code (R&TC).

General Information

In general, for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2010, California law conforms to the Internal Revenue Code (IRC) as of January 1, 2009. However, there are continuing differences between California and federal law. When California conforms to federal tax law changes, we do not always adopt all of the changes made at the federal level. For more information, go to ftb.ca.gov and search for conformity. Additional information can be found in FTB Pub. 1001, Supplemental Guidelines to California Adjustments, the instructions for California Schedule CA (540 or 540NR), and the Business Entity tax booklets.

The instructions provided with California tax forms are a summary of California tax law and are only intended to aid taxpayers in preparing their state income tax returns. We include information that is most useful to the greatest number of taxpayers in the limited space available. It is not possible to include all requirements of the California Revenue and Taxation Code (R&TC) in the tax booklets. Taxpayers should not consider the tax booklets as authoritative law.

Important Information

All corporations and unincorporated associations, even if organized on a nonprofit basis, are subject to California corporation franchise tax or income tax until the Franchise Tax Board (FTB) grants tax-exempt status to the organization.

Use the most current version of the form FTB 3500, Exemption Application. The use of a prior version of the form or failure to provide all requested information may delay the exemption application process.

Nonprofit Does Not Mean Tax-Exempt

To apply for exemption from corporate franchise or income tax, an organization must file form FTB 3500 with all required documentation.

- Until the exemption is granted, the organization remains taxable and the requirement to file a state tax return continues. The FTB may require the organization to file exempt returns for the period of time the exemption is requested.
- The fact that the organization is exempt from federal income tax does not automatically exempt it from California tax.
- California may require the organization to obtain a federal exemption determination letter that establishes or shows its tax-exempt status prior to issuing a state exemption determination letter.

IRC Sections 501(c)(3), 501(c)(4), 501(c)(5), 501(c)(6), or 501(c)(7) Organizations

California law allows federally tax-exempt IRC Sections 501(c)(3), 501(c)(4), 501(c)(5), 501(c)(6), or 501(c)(7), organizations to be exempt from state income taxes after submitting form FTB 3500A, Submission of Exemption Request, and a federal determination letter to the FTB. To get form FTB 3500A, go to ftb.ca.gov and search for 3500A. The organization must notify the FTB when the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) revokes their federal tax-exempt status. The FTB

will revoke the tax-exempt status if the entity fails to meet certain state provisions governing exempt organizations. If an organization's tax-exempt status is revoked or denied, the organization will need to file form FTB 3500 to reinstate its tax-exempt status.

Disclosure of Application Materials

Until the FTB grants tax-exempt status, the application and all associated documentation is confidential. The FTB may not discuss the application with any unauthorized person. However, once exemption is granted, the application, and supporting documents, shall be open to public inspection.

Upon the organization's request, public disclosure of documents relating to any trade secrets, patents, process, style of work, or apparatus may be withheld if the FTB determines that disclosure would adversely affect the organization. Additionally, public disclosure of documents may also be withheld if the disclosure would adversely affect national defense.

California Registered Domestic Partners (RDP)

For purposes of California income tax, references to spouse, husband, or wife also refer to a California RDP, unless otherwise specified. When we use the initials RDP they refer to both a California registered domestic "partner" and a California registered domestic "partnership," as applicable. For more information on RDPs, get FTB Pub. 737, Tax Information for Registered Domestic Partners.

A Purpose

The purpose of form FTB 3500 is to apply for tax-exempt status from California franchise and income tax. If the organization provides all answers and documents required, the FTB will determine if the organization qualifies for tax-exempt status.

B What to Send

To apply for tax-exempt status, the organization must include:

1. A completed form FTB 3500, with an original signature of an individual, such as:
 - An elected officer
 - A director
 - An authorized representative
 - A trustee (if the organization is a trust)
2. All information and documents requested in the application.
3. A $25 application fee. Using black or blue ink, make the check or money order payable to the "Franchise Tax Board." Make all checks or money orders payable in U.S. dollars and drawn against a U.S. financial institution.

C Where to Apply

Mail form FTB 3500, with the supporting documents to:

FRANCHISE TAX BOARD
PO BOX 942857
SACRAMENTO CA 94257-0501

If you have questions about this form, call 916.845.4171.

D What Happens Next

- If the organization qualifies for tax-exempt status, the FTB will mail a determination letter to the organization. The determination letter is proof of tax-exempt status. The FTB does not issue a "tax-exempt ID number."
- Failure to furnish ALL required information may delay the application process, or the application may be denied.
- If additional information is required, or if documents need to be amended, the FTB will contact the person or representative designated on form FTB 3500.

E Incorporated Organizations

If the organization is incorporated, send the following to the FTB:

- The items listed under General Information B.
- A copy of the articles of incorporation and all amendments stamped by the California Secretary of State (SOS).
- A copy of the corporation's bylaws or other code of regulations. See Guidelines For Bylaws on page 33.

If the organization is not incorporated and wishes to do so, the organization should first incorporate before applying for exemption.

For more information on incorporating go to sos.ca.gov.

Articles of Incorporation

The articles of incorporation must meet the requirements of the California Corporations Code, and the California R&TC.

Guidelines for Organizing Documents and the sample articles of incorporation are structured to meet the California SOS requirements for incorporating and the requirements necessary for exemption.

Generally, organizations incorporating as nonprofit must do so under one of the three sections of the California Corporations Code Section 5110 (public benefit), Section 7110 (mutual benefit), or Section 9110 (religious.)

Exceptions:

- Organizations seeking exemption under R&TC Section 23701h or Section 23701x that have members may incorporate under the stock provisions of the California Corporations Code. (See California Corporations Code Section 202.)
- If an unincorporated association is being incorporated, an article (like the following) must be added: "The name of the existing unincorporated association now being incorporated by the filing of the articles is (state name of association)."

F Foreign Corporations

If the organization is incorporated in another state or country, it is considered a foreign corporation. A foreign corporation doing business or operating in California has a requirement to file an annual income tax return and to pay tax, even if it has not qualified to do business through the California SOS.

A foreign corporation may qualify to do business in California if it complies with the requirements of the California Corporations Code requirements and submits documents to the SOS. For more information on qualifying, go to sos.ca.gov.

Qualified Foreign Corporations

Qualified foreign corporations send the following to the FTB:

- The items listed in General Information B.
- A copy of the Statement and Designation by Foreign Corporation stamped by the California SOS.
- A copy of the stamped articles of incorporation from the state of incorporation.
- A copy of the corporation's bylaws or other code of regulations. See Guidelines for Bylaws on page 33.
- A copy of the federal exemption determination letter.

Non-Qualified Foreign Corporations

Non-qualified foreign corporations seeking tax exemption must provide a slightly different list of documents. If the foreign corporation is not qualified through the California SOS, send the following:

- The items listed in General Information B.
- A letter of good standing from the state of incorporation.
- A copy of the stamped articles of incorporation from the state of incorporation.
- A copy of the bylaws or other code of regulations. See Guidelines for Bylaws on page 33.
- A copy of the federal exemption determination letter.

G Unincorporated Associations

If the organization is an unincorporated association and does not wish to incorporate, send the following to the FTB:

- The items listed in General Information B.
- A copy of the constitution, articles of association, bylaws or other code of regulations with specific language signed by the board of directors or other governing body. See Guidelines for Bylaws on page 33.

Creating Documents

An unincorporated association must have a creating document that meets specific language requirements. Guidelines for Organizing Documents and samples of unincorporated association documents that begin on page 34 are structured to meet these requirements.

An unincorporated association that has tax-exempt status must reapply for exemption if it incorporates. For more information on incorporating, see Section E, Incorporated Corporations.

H Trusts

Trusts must furnish a copy of the federal exemption determination letter before state exemption will be granted. If the trust has not applied for federal exemption, it should do so. Attach a statement to form FTB 3500 stating when the federal application was submitted. In addition, send the following documents:

- The items requested under General Information B.

- A copy of the trust instrument and any amendments.

Trusts that organize and operate for purposes described in R&TC Section 23701d are treated as nonprofit corporations for tax-exempt purposes.

Pension plans described in IRC Section 401(a) are not required to file form FTB 3500 with the FTB.

I Limited Liability Companies

A limited liability company (LLC) classified as a partnership or as a disregarded entity that meets all of the requirements of R&TC Section 23701h or 23701x may qualify for exemption from tax as a title-holding organization.

California Corporations Code Section 17002 allows LLCs to engage in any lawful business activity, whether or not for profit. An LLC that elects to be taxed as a corporation may qualify for tax-exempt status, if it meets all the other requirements of R&TC Section 23701 and the IRS under IRC Sections 501(c).

LLC Organized in California

If the LLC is organized in California, send the following documents:

- The items listed in General Information B.
- A copy of the articles of organization (LLC-1) and any amendments stamped by the SOS.
- A copy of the operating agreement and any amendments.

Foreign LLC Registered in California

If the LLC is a foreign LLC qualified in California, send the following:

- The items listed in General Information B.
- A copy of the Application to Register a Foreign Limited Liability Company (LLC-5) and any amendments stamped by the SOS.
- A copy of the articles of organization from the state of incorporation and any amendments.
- A copy of the LLC's operating agreement.

Additional requirement for LLCs classified as corporations

If the LLC elects to be classified as a corporation, the LLC must also provide a copy of its federal exemption determination letter or a copy of the federal Form 8832, Entity Classification Election, as submitted to the IRS. The election of classification purposes must be the same for California state tax purposes as for federal purposes.

Articles of organization

To qualify for tax-exempt status, the articles of organization of an LLC must contain specific language. See Guidelines for Organizing Documents on page 34 for sample articles of organization.

J Political Organizations

A political organization meeting the requirements of R&TC Section 23701r is not required to file form FTB 3500 with the FTB. The organization must obtain a letter from the FTB certifying tax-exempt status if it wants to incorporate and avoid the annual payment of the minimum franchise tax.

The political organization must submit a written request that includes a description of the political organization's activities and, if incorporated, a copy of the articles of incorporation and any amendments.

Mail the request to:

EXEMPT ORGANIZATIONS UNIT MS F120
FRANCHISE TAX BOARD
PO BOX 1286
RANCHO CORDOVA CA 95741-1286

Telephone: 916.845.4171

For more information about political organizations, get FTB Pub. 1075, Exempt Organizations — Guide for Political Organizations. Go to ftb.ca.gov and search for 1075.

K Reinstatement of revoked tax-exempt status

When an entity's tax-exempt status is revoked for failure to file a return, failure to pay a balance due, or for being suspended, there is an abbreviated process to have the entity's tax-exempt status reinstated.

If the organization or trust was granted tax-exempt status after 1968, send the following documents:

- The items requested under General Information B.
- A copy of the bylaws and creating documents are required if they have been amended or changed since the tax-exempt status was originally granted by the FTB. If no amendments or changes, the documents are not required, unless specifically requested by FTB.

L Group Exemption

A parent organization applying for group exemption for its California subordinates must first establish its own tax-exempt status. To request a group exemption, do the following:

1. Complete a separate form FTB 3500, Side 1 only.
2. Write "Group Exemption" in red in the top margin of the form on Side 1.
3. Pay a $25 application fee. Using black or blue ink, make the check or money order payable to the "Franchise Tax Board." Make all checks or money orders payable in U.S. dollars and drawn against a U.S. financial institution.
4. Attach the following to the application:
 - A cover letter stating the subordinates are affiliated and are subject to the parent's general supervision and control.
 - A sample copy of the uniform charter.
 - An affirmation that the subordinates are operating in accordance with their stated purposes.
 - A statement that the subordinates have furnished written authorization to be included with the group exemption application.
 - A list of California subordinates, their organization number (if any), the date the subordinates affiliated with the parent, and their current mailing address.
 - The federal employer identification number (FEIN).
 - The accounting period ending used.
 - A statement as to whether the organization receives unrelated business income (if so, include the gross amount).

All the subordinates included in the group exemption must be exempt under the same lettered section under R&TC Section 23701, although not necessarily exempt under the same section as the national, state, or parent central organization.

M Retroactive Exempt Status

The FTB may grant tax-exempt status retroactively for periods in which the organization substantiates that it was organized and operated for tax-exempt purposes.

The FTB may consider this form as a claim for refund if the organization is subsequently found to be tax-exempt during the same period that the organization previously paid tax. Under California Regulation Section 23701 in no event shall a claim for refund be allowed unless timely filed under R&TC Section 19306.

If the organization is incorporated or is a LLC, and is not currently in good standing with the FTB, this form may be considered a request to bring the organization relief from suspension or forfeiture under R&TC Section 23776.

Suspension or forfeiture means that the corporation or LLC loses its powers, rights and privileges, including the right to enforce legal contracts. Such contracts will remain voidable and unenforceable unless the organization requests relief from contract voidability, and the FTB grants relief. See R&TC Sections 19135, 19719, 23301, 23305.1, and 23305.2 for more information.

To purchase relief from contract voidability, complete form FTB 2518BC, Application of Relief from Contract Voidability. For more information, go to ftb.ca.gov and search for contract voidability.

N Suspended/Forfeited Status

An organization must be active and in good standing to retain tax-exempt status. If the organization is not currently in good standing and all filing requirements have been satisfied and/or amounts due have been paid, this form may be considered a request to bring the organization relief from suspension or forfeiture under R&TC Section 23776.

Specific Instructions

Form FTB 3500 is divided in two parts:

- General questions that all organizations must answer.
- Specific questions that organizations must answer for their particular exemption classification.

General Questions

All organizations complete form FTB 3500, Side 1 through Side 8. Provide complete and detailed answers for each question, and any requested documents.

Part III Financial Data

Include receipts and expenses from all sources. The organization may use its own detailed gross receipts and expenses statement provided it is similar to the statement on Side 4.

If the organization has already obtained federal tax-exempt status, the organization may attach the last three years of federal Form 990 series information returns. Federal 990N e-Postcard filers must complete the financial statement below or provide their own detailed statement.

If the organization has had financial activities for less than one year, provide a financial statement for the period of activities and a projected budget for the entire first year. If the organization has no gross receipts and expenses, attach a detailed statement explaining any operations and how the organization operates with no receipts or expenses.

Organizations seeking tax-exempt status as a social or recreational club (R&TC Section 23701g) or as a homeowners association (R&TC Section 23701t) must list their nonmembership income separately.

Homeowners associations (R&TC Section 23701t) must also list any membership dues and assessments separately from membership income.

Specific Section Questions

In addition to Side 1 through Side 8, the organization must answer specific section questions that pertain to type of exemption requested.

The Exempt Classification chart below lists the type of exemption, comparable state and federal codes, and the specific section the organization must complete. Complete only one section. Provide complete and detailed answers.

Additional Questions

Churches, credit counseling organizations, and hospitals applying for tax-exempt status under R&TC Section 23701d or Section 23701f must complete an additional schedule. See FTB Form 3500, Side 11, Section D, or Side 12, Section F for more information.

Attachments

If the organization needs more space on the forms or schedules, attach separate sheets showing the same information in the same order as on the printed forms.

Enter the organization's name and California corporation or SOS number on each sheet. Also, use sheets that are the same size as the forms and schedules and indicate clearly the line number of the printed form to which the information relates. Show totals on the printed forms.

Form FTB 3500 Procedural Checklist

This checklist is designed to help the organization prepare its exemption application. It is not an inclusive list of all required information on the application. If the organization does not provide all required information, additional correspondence will be necessary. This will delay the determination of exempt status or result in denial of the application. Retain a copy of the completed form FTB 3500 and all attachments for the organization's permanent records.

Attach a copy of this checklist with the completed form FTB 3500.

1. Has the organization:

Completed General Questions Side 1 through Side 8?
Attach a statement if the organization needs more space to answer any question.

2. Has the organization provided detailed financial information? (check one)

Completed Part III, Receipts and Expenses Statement and Balance Sheet showing income and expenses from all sources.
 Attached similar statements showing income and expenses from all sources.
 Attached the last three years of federal 990 series information returns.
 990N e-Postcard filers: Completed Part III, or attached a similar statement.

3. Check the Specific Section that the organization completed. Complete only one section.

Guidelines For Bylaws

Bylaws set forth how an organization will operate. The following are some standard categories included in bylaws and descriptions of what may be addressed in each category. These are not mandatory categories, nor are they all inclusive. They are merely provided for guidance purposes. When the organization drafts its bylaws, include only those categories that meet the operational goals of the organization.

Name

The name of the organization. The form of the seal (if any). What is required for the organization to change its name (such as a vote of a certain percentage of the members).

Purpose

Describe the purpose of the organization.

Membership

Establish requirements regarding the membership including:

1. Basis for membership
2. Basis for terminating a person's membership

Meetings

Describe activities or requirements for meetings, including:

1. When regular meetings will be held
2. How they are to be rescheduled if the need arises
3. How and when members will be notified of meetings
4. How special meetings are to be called
5. What percentage of membership constitutes a quorum in the event a vote is to be taken

Voting

Describe issues concerning voting, including:

1. When and how voting will be conducted
2. How the votes will be tallied and who will do the tallying
3. How board members and officers will be elected

Order of Business

Establish the order in which the meetings will be conducted.

Board of Directors

Describe the requirements of the board of directors, including:

1. How many board members there will be
2. How they will be chosen
3. How long they will serve
4. What their responsibilities will be
5. When they will meet
6. How many constitute a quorum
7. Basis for removal of a director

Officers

Describe the requirements of the officers, including:

1. How many officers there will be
2. How they will be chosen
3. How long they will serve
4. What their responsibilities will be
5. When they will meet
6. Basis for removal of an officer
7. Whether they will be compensated for their services

Salaries

Describe issues concerning salaries, including:

1. Who will establish the amount
2. Options for revising the amount

Committees

Describe issues associated with committees, including:

1. What the committees will be responsible for doing
2. How new committees will be created
3. Who may serve on a committee
4. How long members will serve on a committee
5. Basis for removing committee members

Dues

Describe issues associated with dues, including:

1. The amount of dues
2. When they are to be paid
3. Consequences of failing to pay the dues
4. How the amount is established and/or revised

Records and Reports

Describe the accounts, books, and records to be maintained by the organization. Describe the minutes to be kept at each meeting, whether or not they will be opened for inspection and, if open, when they will be available.

Amendments

Describe issues associated with how the bylaws will be amended, include:

1. Who can initiate an amendment
2. When the amendment will be made
3. If a vote is to be taken will a majority or quorum be required

Other

Include any other provisions that describe how the organization will operate.

Guidelines for Organizing Documents

The tables below and samples that begin on the next page provide direction to draft the organization's creating documents for corporations, unincorporated associations, and LLCs. Creating documents for corporations, unincorporated associations, and LLCs require a signature by the incorporator or authorized representative.

Generally, organizations incorporating as a nonprofit must do so under one of the three sections of the California Corporations Code: Section 5110, Public Benefit Corporation Law, Section 7110, Mutual Benefit Corporation Law, or Section 9110, Religious Corporation Law.

Title holding organizations incorporating under R&TC Section 23701h or Section 23701x that have members must incorporate under the stock provisions of the California Corporations Code. (See California Corporations Code Section 202.) The articles of incorporation must contain a statement that the activities will be limited to those permitted under whichever section of the R&TC the exemption is being sought. If the organization does not have any members, it may incorporate as a mutual benefit corporation.

Dissolution and Alternate Distributees

Organizations that wish to distribute their assets to a specific organization when they dissolve, must provide for an alternate distributee. This is needed because the specific organization may not be in existence or may not be exempt under the appropriate section of law at the time of distribution.

IRC Sections 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations may use the following sample clauses below.

Charitable, educational and/or religious organizations. Upon the dissolution or winding up of this organization, its assets remaining after the payment of, or provision for the payment of, all debts and liabilities of this organization, shall be distributed to (Enter the name of the organization) if it is then in existence and organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, and/or religious purposes and exempt under IRC Section 501(c)(3), but if not then in existence or so organized and operated or exempt, to another organization which is organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, and/or religious purposes and which has established its tax-exempt status under IRC Section 501(c)(3).

Social welfare organizations. IRC Section 501(c)(4) organizations that wish to designate a specific organization must also provide for an alternate distributee. Social welfare organizations may use the following sample clause in lieu of Sample A, Article VII; Sample B, Article VII; Sample C, Article VII; Sample E, Article VII; Sample H, Item 5; Sample I, Item 5 or Sample J, Item 5.

Upon the dissolution or winding up of this organization, its assets remaining after the payment of, or provision for the payment of, all debts and liabilities of this organization, shall be distributed to (Enter the name of the organization) if it is then in existence and organized and operated exclusively for charitable, religious, educational and/or social welfare purposes and exempt under IRC Section 501(c)(3) or 501(c)(4), but if not then in existence or so organized and operated or exempt, to another organization which is organized and operated exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and/or social welfare purposes and which has established its tax-exempt status under IRC Section 501(c)(3) or 501(c)(4).
